course overview
Merger and acquisition activity continues to be at the core of corporate banking.

Led by former UBS and HSBC expert, Paul Richards, you will earn about structuring and financing transactions and sound company valuation techniques to help form a successful deal. Other sessions will also bring an understanding of buyers and sellers' motivations, the problems encountered when advising clients and how to overcome them through negotiation.

In addition the course will pay special attention to the role of due diligence and its impact on value. Furthermore, it will focus on new areas of activity such as arbitrage strategies in M&A situations.

methodology

- Uncompromisingly practical, using real-life case studies and computer simulations to provide you with a true awareness of what makes M&A work.
- Analysis of past deals to find out how they were structured, financed and managed.
