Continuing Professional Development/Continuing Legal Education
For delegates from countries where CPD/CLE is mandatory, the International Bar Association will be pleased to provide a Conference Certificate of Attendance which, subject to the exact CPD/CLE requirements, may be used to obtain the equivalent accreditation in your jurisdiction.

This conference has been accredited for CPD/CLE by the Solicitors Regulation Authority of England and Wales. Delegates should ask staff at the registration desk for information as to how to obtain the hours.

The organisers may at any time, with or without giving notice, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, cancel or postpone the conference, change its venue or any of the other published particulars, or withdraw any invitation to attend. In any case, neither the organisers nor any of their officers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be liable for any loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person, nor will they return any money paid to them in connection with the conference unless they are satisfied not only that the money in question remains under their control but also that the person who paid it has been unfairly prejudiced (as to which, decision shall be in their sole and unfettered discretion and, when announced, final and conclusive).

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organization of international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies. The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of over 30,000 individual lawyers and more than 195 bar associations and law societies spanning all continents. It has considerable expertise in providing assistance to the global legal community as well as being a source of distinguished legal commentators for international news outlets.

Grouped into two divisions – the Legal Practice Division and the Public and Professional Interest Division – the IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information. Through the various committees of the divisions, the IBA enables an interchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of business law around the globe.

The IBA's Bar Issues Commission provides an invaluable forum for IBA member organizations to discuss all matters relating to law at an international level.

The IBA's Human Rights Institute works across the Association to promote protect and enforce human rights under a just rule of law, and to preserve the independence of the judiciary and the legal profession worldwide.

Other institutions established by the IBA include the Southern Africa Litigation Centre and the International Legal Assistance Consortium.

Additionally, the IBA's high-quality publications and world-class conferences provide unrivalled professional development and network-building opportunities for international legal practitioners and professional associates.

Arbitration Committee overview

The Arbitration Committee focuses on laws, practice and procedures relating to the arbitration of transnational disputes. Through its publications and conferences, the committee seeks to share information about international arbitration and promote its use and improve its effectiveness.

The committee has four subcommittees, namely Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards, Investment Treaty Arbitration, Conflicts of Interest, and Rules of Evidence. The committee also has established two task forces: the Task Force on Attorney Ethics in Arbitration; and the Task Force on Arbitration Agreements.

The committee publishes a newsletter which is issued twice a year. The newsletter is packed with articles from practitioners worldwide. The committee's publications include the IBA Guidelines on Conflicts of Interest in International Arbitration and the IBA Rules on the Taking of Evidence in International Commercial Arbitration. Committee members also receive the IBA's Dispute Resolution International journal which is issued twice a year.

The committee has more than 2,300 members from over 90 countries.

European Regional Forum overview

The European Regional Forum was established in 1989 to provide a focus originally on the work undertaken by the IBA in developing the practice under changing legal systems of lawyers in Eastern and Central Europe. The Forum was also intended to act as a channel for IBA communication with the bar associations of these local lawyers.

International Dispute Resolution Services

LCIA

One of the longest established of the international arbitration institutions, the LCIA is also one of the most modern and forward looking. It is an international organisation offering a worldwide service.

Based in London, the LCIA provides efficient, flexible and impartial administration of arbitration and other ADR proceedings, regardless of location, and under any system of law. Typically, 80% of the parties involved in pending LCIA cases are not of English nationality.

LCIA arbitration
The LCIA deals with disputes arising out of a very wide and varied range of commercial contracts, including telecommunications; insurance; oil and gas exploration; construction; shipping; aviation; pharmaceuticals; shareholders agreements; IT, finance and banking; and general sale of goods. Sums in dispute range from US$50,000 or less to more than US$5 billion.

LCIA mediation
The LCIA administers rules under its international mediation procedure, which may be used by parties who are already committed to mediate, by virtue of contractual dispute resolution provisions, and by parties who have not provided for mediation, but who wish to mediate their dispute, either in an attempt to avoid, or during the course of, litigation or arbitration.

Neutrals
The LCIA draws on its own database of the most eminent and appropriately qualified arbitrators and mediators, from a wide range of professional backgrounds and disciplines. There is, however, neither a closed list of individual arbitrators or mediators nor a closed list of nationalities. All arbitrators and mediators are required to declare and to maintain their independence and impartiality.

Other ADR
The LCIA also administers expert determinations, adjudications and other alternatives to arbitration and mediation, for which purpose recommended procedures and clauses are available on request from the LCIA Secretariat.

Charges
The LCIA strives to keep the cost of dispute resolution reasonable, to which end the LCIA’s charges, and the fees charged by the tribunals it appoints, are not based on the sums in issue. It also seeks to give the parties as much control as possible over the proceedings and to ensure that proceedings are concluded as expeditiously as is conducive to the proper determination of the dispute.

Conferences and Membership
In addition to its dispute resolution services, the LCIA has a general membership for which it organises a worldwide programme of conferences, seminars and other events of interest to the arbitration and ADR community.

Young International Arbitration Group (YIAG)
YIAG is an LCIA sponsored association for younger members of the arbitration community. It holds a number of symposia each year, at venues throughout the world, and publishes an e-newsletter for its members. The upper age limit for membership, for which there is no subscription, is 40 years. Please email yiag@lcia.org for further information.

KluwerArbitration now includes two time-saving practice tools: a set of 5 easy-to-use question and answer Smart Charts, edited by Clifford Chance LLP, and a search-for-an-arbitrator tool, the IAI Arbitrator Tool, developed in conjunction with the International Arbitration Institute (IAI).

Comparative Smart Charts

The question and answer Smart Charts allow you to quickly examine and/or compare specific content by particular jurisdiction or arbitral institution. The charts include:

- NEW Appointment and Challenge of Arbitrators: The ability to constitute an impartial and suitably-qualified Tribunal (and, correspondingly, challenging partial or unsuitable arbitrators) is the first critical step in ensuring the procedural integrity of arbitration proceedings and, hence, the valid and binding nature of any Award rendered. It will assist in complying with any formal requirements and challenging partial or otherwise unsuitable nominees in whatever jurisdiction the Tribunal is seated. It covers 21 jurisdictions.

- NEW Confidentiality in International Arbitration: It assists in knowing whether the jurisdiction in which arbitration is seated will treat the arbitration as confidential. It covers 21 jurisdictions.

- Arbitral Institutions: Providing at-a-glance comparative summary of the procedural rules of the major international Arbitral Institutions. It covers 22 institutions.

- Drafting Arbitration Agreements: Assisting with the drafting of valid and binding arbitration agreements by providing a summary of the main components of an agreement. It covers 37 jurisdictions.

- Sovereign Immunity: It provides a comparative summary of the circumstances in which, and legal basis on which immunity from enforcement may be claimed by States and State entities across key jurisdictions. It covers 27 jurisdictions.

The Smart Charts have been edited by Audley Sheppard, Clifford Chance LLP, a well-known and very highly respected arbitration partner based in London. They offer practitioners an opportunity to review a topic or procedure that is key to the practice of arbitration and gain an answer across many jurisdictions or institutions. The 5 Smart Charts cover between 21 and 37 key and hard to find jurisdictions. Our aim over the coming year is to add additional jurisdictions to ensure they build into a truly comprehensive resource.

IAI Arbitrator Tool

The IAI Arbitrator Tool on KluwerArbitration allows you to search the IAI Directory and compare the members’ details. Searches can be run based on a number of criteria: name, country of residence; nationality; languages spoken; experience, both as arbitrator, or as counsel; publications and Awards rendered. Where appropriate, links will be included to the full text of publications or awards on KluwerArbitration. The 'Compare' function allows you to view arbitrator’s side-by-side, to aid ease-of-use.

The IAI Arbitrator tool has been developed in conjunction with the International Arbitration Institute (IAI). The IAI maintains a Directory of members that is considered as one of the best sources of biographical information on arbitration specialists. It contains biographical details over 600 members in 44 countries.

Benefits of Using the New Practice Tools

The Practice Tools have been designed to help you:

- Save valuable research time as you will be able to quickly and easily compare specific areas of international arbitration by jurisdiction or institution.

- Conduct powerful research by linking from the practice tools to relevant information such as awards or publications contained within KluwerArbitration.
