Purpose of this conference

In difficult times + for new markets the demand for letters of credit increases. This conference highlights Renminbi Letters of Credits, the L/C practice in Algeria, gives a first glance on the new ISPB, it focuses on the impact of Basel II + III on trade finance, the new rules in Forfeiting, etc., and shows new ways to prepare for the unexpected.

Participants benefit from gaining a deeper understanding of

- the many different ways L/Cs are handled in practice
- the specifics of L/Cs in different regions with a focus on Algeria
- cross border settlements: RMB L/Cs
- potential problems with the underlying sales contract, with transport documents and insurance issues + solutions
- L/C “specialties”, potential traps and how to circumvent looming problems
- Most recent queries on UCP 600 – contribute your own cases to our round table discussion!

Information about ICC Austria - The world business organization

ICC Austria is a non-profit organisation helping members of the international trade community to succeed in their international endeavours. Members are internationally active manufacturers, traders and service organisations serving this constituency like international banks, lawyers, transport, forwarding and insurance companies, tax consultants etc.

ICC Austria assists its members in their daily questions around:

- Bank Guarantees and Letters of Credit
- Foreign trade and law,
- International trade terms and conditions,
- Dispute prevention and dispute resolution as well as the prevention of commercial crime.

Experts of ICC Austria advise companies and banks how to apply Incoterms, Letters of Credit, Bank Guarantees etc. within their import-export contract and how to proceed in their international negotiations in the light of cross cultural differences.
