UP TO 9 CPD HOURS AVAILABLE*

A conference presented by the IBA International Construction Projects Committee and supported by the IBA European Regional Forum

4th Biennial IBA Conference on Construction Projects from Conception to Completion

17–18 September 2010
Brussels Marriott Hotel
Brussels, Belgium

Topics include:

- Anti-corruption measures and procurement rules
- Financing models – successes and failures
- How has the global economic downturn had an impact on the construction industry?
- Focus session on building stadia and sports facilities
- Developments in alternative methods of resolving construction disputes
- Arbitrating construction disputes

*As per the Solicitors Regulation Authority of England and Wales. The number of CPD points/hours available may vary for other bar associations and law societies depending on their criteria.

Who should attend?

Private practitioners, in-house lawyers, contract managers and claims consultants should attend this conference. This conference will have particular appeal to younger project lawyers, and, as in previous years, will cover topics in a manner accessible to lawyers near the beginning of their careers while also appealing to lawyers with many years' project experience.

Programme

Conference Co-Chairs

David Robertson Fenwick Elliott LLP, London

Cecilia Vidigal Monteiro de Barros Xavier Bernardes Bragança, São Paulo; Vice-Chair, Project Execution Subcommittee; IBA International Construction Projects Committee

The organisers may at any time, with or without giving notice, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, cancel or postpone the conference, change its venue or any of the other published particulars, or withdraw any invitation to attend. In any case, neither the organisers nor any of their officers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be liable for any loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person, nor will they return any money paid to them in connection with the conference unless they are satisfied not only that the money in question remains under their control but also that the person who paid it has been unfairly prejudiced (as to which, decision shall be in their sole and unfettered discretion and, when announced, final and conclusive).

Continuing Professional Development/Continuing Legal Education

For delegates from countries where CPD/CLE is mandatory, the International Bar Association will be pleased to provide a Conference Certificate of Attendance which, subject to the exact CPD/CLE requirements, may be used to obtain the equivalent accreditation in your jurisdiction.

This conference has been accredited for CPD/CLE by the Solicitors Regulation Authority of England and Wales. Delegates should ask staff at the registration desk for information as to how to obtain the hours.

International Bar Association

the global voice of the legal profession

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies. The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of 40,000 individual lawyers and more than 197 bar associations and law societies spanning all continents. It has considerable expertise in providing assistance to the global legal community as well as being a source of distinguished legal commentators for international news outlets.

Grouped into two divisions – the Legal Practice Division and the Public and Professional Interest Division – the IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information. Through the various committees of the divisions, the IBA enables an interchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of business law around the globe. Additionally, the IBA's high-quality publications and world-class conferences provide unrivalled professional development and network-building opportunities for international legal practitioners and professional associates.

International Construction Projects Committee overview

This Committee is for lawyers interested in construction law and in exchanging experiences from construction projects around the world. All aspects and types of construction and engineering projects are dealt with, from traditional building and civil engineering contracts to state-of-the art project finance infrastructure projects.

The Committee has something to offer both those active on their domestic market as well as those involved in overseas projects. It has members well known in the field of construction law and all members together represent a vast source of experience in contentious and non-contentious construction contract issues from all parts of the world.

European Regional Forum overview

The European Regional Forum has been developing and strengthening the existence of the IBA within the whole of Europe by promoting the goals of the IBA to members, non-members and others, disseminating professional know-how, and assisting the committees and other constituencies of the IBA to increase their presence in the different sub-regions of Europe, including parts of North Africa and the Middle East.

The goals of the Forum include addressing current and long-term needs of professional organisations and individual members within the geographical reach of the Forum, as well as increasing membership and participation in the IBA and integrating them within the organisation. The Forum will also facilitate cross-border activity between lawyers and bars in different European countries. It has a particular focus on cross-disciplinary activities.
